

Dear Colleagues,

ETUI Education, in cooperation with DGB (Germany) and ACV-CSC (Belgium), would like to invite you for a blended training course entitled “Role of Trade Unions at the European Level: advocacy and lobbying” that will take place over 5 weeks from 21st May to 21st June on a blended format (online via Moodle and face-to-face).

Course Description

During this blended course participants will have the opportunity to better understand the EU Institutions, the decision-making processes, and the role Trade Unions can play to influence them in order to improve the impact of the trade union agenda at the European level, i.e. using campaigns and mobilisations, the EU institutions, employers and the social dialogue, allies in civil society, the Tripartite Social Summit, and EU external relations.

Aims

At the end of this course participants will be able to:

- To identify the role and responsibilities of EU institutions
- To recognise the EU policy-making process
- To understand the EU trade union structures and the way they work
- To analyse the impact of trade union action at the European level
- To develop advocacy skills and strategies to influence the decision-making process

Participants' Profile

Trade union officers from the ETUC affiliated organisations who are interested in EU-related issues, new officers at the international department, ETUC advocacy groups or permanent committees, ETUFs sectorial groups.

Working Languages

English, German and French.

Programme

The course is a blended course compound of two different parts the online training course "EU for trade unionists" that provides basic knowledge on European institutions that can be developed in 3-4 weeks. After that, we will have covered the basics and we can move forward to talk about advocacy and influencing the decision-making process in our face-to-face course that will take place in Brussels.

Here you will find more information:
