

Building Trade Union responses to combat fascism, racism, and xenophobia - How to better communicate Program

Dates: 25-27 June 2025

Venue: Berchem, Belgium

time	Wednesday 25 June	Thursday 26 June	Friday 27 June
09:00	Welcome ETUI Introduction of the participants Introduction – the rise of the far-right the state of play <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mapping activity -group work - Expert presentation - Debates 	Trade Union plan on combating Far-right: Exchange of actions and strategies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - BE case presentation - RO case presentation - Discussions Building alliances <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 8 of May Coalition's presentation - Brainstorming and debates - Activity on how to build alliances 	Building a trade union narrative to countering the far-right <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Working group on a common creating a common guideline to develop a trade union narrative - Report back - Discussions Conclusions and evaluation
12:30	Lunch break	Lunch break	Lunch break
14:00	Bred and roses- solidarity actions and policies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Presentation by ETUC - Roundtable discussion From vote watch to observatory- some recent local practices from Belgium <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Presentation by Thomas Miessen, CSC - Discussions 	How trade union make use of social media to combat far-right <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Expert presentation on the use of social media - Reflective activity - Debates 	Departure of participants
17:00	End of the day	End of the day
19:00	Dinner	Free diner

