

training agenda, 14-16 January 2026, hotel Scandic Continental Stockholm

EWCs right to training draft agenda

14 th Jan		Thursday 15 th January	Friday 16 th January
9:00 – 10:30		Opening round, tour de table Setting the scene: EWC and the training – improving EWC performance and shaping the EWC future via educational events Exchanges: EWC discovering the training as an own area of influence	Types and topics of EWC training ETUI landscape Why EWCs get regular training and how do they do that? Brainstorming on EWC strengths in access to training
		energy break
11:00 – 12:30		Legal basis for the EWC right to training: EWC Directive & agreement Expert intro on the basic training rights Training rights in my EWC agreement and practice Groupwork: what do I have in my EWC? Training strategies	Long-term training framework What kind of training the EWC can ask for, what topics would be useful? EWC roadmap for strategic training plan closing interventions, evaluation, end of training
		lunch break
14:00 – 15:30	arrivals	National approaches to EWC training: Italian and Swedish examples Expert intro on national specifics in right to training of employee representatives with EWC in focus Backstage of training: time-off, no wage loss, internal procedures Group discussion: differences between the countries and EWCs	departures
		energy break
16:00 – 17:30		What topics you need? Skills necessary in international environment Brainstorming on the type and content of the training ideal for EWC Training as a strategic tool Input & debate: How to use EWC and SNB training strategically? Training as strategic tool of internal democracy and long-term planning End of the day discussion
	dinner	dinner

The ETUI is co-funded by the European Union

EWC trainings are financed by European Workers Participation Fund (EWPF)

etui.