

Revised EWC Directive: what's new for EWC coordinators?

UNA Hotels T, Cagliari (Italy), 7-8/05/2026

7th May (Thursday)		8th May (Friday)
9:00 – 10:30	Introductions, tour de table Why new EWC Directive matters? Background and objectives of the Directive, what is at stake for trade unions and EWCs? Expert introduction	Clarified access to justice, enforcement and dispute resolution: role of the trade union coordinators Peer comparison + expert guidelines
10:30 – 11:00	coffee &amp; energy break
11:00 – 12:30	Timeline and current state of play: when do we start? Supporting EWCs in agreement renegotiation depending on the EWC legal type: different pathways and renegotiation strategies Expert input + groupwork (when and how to trigger renegotiations)	SNBs, confidentiality and gender equality: what else changes? Discussion on improvements in planning, next steps Closing, conclusions, wrap-up, evaluation
12:30 – 14:00	lunch break
14:00 – 15:30	Stronger transnationality, timing &amp; consultations Peer comparison + expert guidelines	departures
15:30 – 16:00	coffee &amp; energy break
16:00 – 17:30	Improving plenary meetings: additional topics and resources Peer comparison + expert guidelines

The ETUI is co-funded by the European Union
 This course is financed by European Workers Participation Fund

etui.