

The Education department of the ETUI is organising a course entitled 'English language and communication- Intermediate level'. This training will take place from 9 to 13 November 2026 in Dublin, Ireland.

This course aims at empowering trade unionists to communicate constructively, openly and more effectively. The development of argumentation skills within a cross-cultural context is a key focus, facilitating the achievement of your goals.

Through the improvement of communication skills, this course facilitates more effective networking among trade unionists across borders. Overcoming the fear of public speaking is emphasized as a crucial step, enabling you to discuss and argue our trade union position at the European level.

Objectives

- * use communication techniques which enable them to get across their messages effectively in English;
- * exchange information and views about current trade union issues in European countries;
- * widen their perspective of trade unionism in Europe by communicating with other European trade union officers in a common language;
- * implement argumentation skills in a cross-cultural group so as to achieve set goals;
- * practice and improve their level of English in a more autonomous way.
