

9-11 November 2026 – Dublin, Ireland

Pre-course online Module	Monday 9.11	Tuesday 10.11	Wednesday 11.11	Thursday 12.11	Friday 13.11
Module 1: Welcome, introductions Pre-course activities: - Introductory activities - Reading, listening, writing practice activities	A R R I V A L	09:00 Welcome, participant presentations - Course expectations - Programme and Objectives Exploring our Trade Union roles, responsibilities and key trade union priorities. Grammar focus: Present tenses Functional language: Discussing general facts, roles, responsibilities.	09:00 Talking about the past and history of Trade Unions. Grammar Focus: Past tenses - Analysis and practice Functional language: Giving opinions/agreeing, disagreeing.	9:00 Functional language: The Language of Public Speaking. - Language focus: the language of presentations Communication practice: Networking Activity – Trade Union Marketplace	9:00 Final presentations: Focus groups, panel discussions, negotiations, etc. - Group work Feedback and evaluation of communication tasks and evaluation of the course
		12:30 - LUNCH	12:30 - LUNCH	12:30 - LUNCH	12:30 - LUNCH
Estimated workload: -2 hours Modules available from 22.10.2026	16:00- 18:00 ETUI Welcome and Cultural afternoon - Introductions - Getting-to-know-you activity	14:00 Communication practice and workshops - Discussing current issues related to Trade Unions - Group work 17:30- End of the day	14:00 Communication practice and workshops - Preparation of a debate on TU related issues - Group work 17:30- End of the day	14:00 Research and preparation: final communication task - Group work 17:30- End of the day	D E P A R T U R E
	DINNER	DINNER	DINNER	DINNER IN THE CITY

